

EQUILIBRIUM BOTTLE #67 (Works on the Physical Level)
Love From Above

(The liquid of the Equilibrium bottle is meant to go on the physical body and is absorbed through the skin (the largest organ of the body) and enters the lymphatic system, to the circulatory system via the blood where it is taken to the appropriate organs and endocrine glands (which adds the appropriate harmonics to the subtle bodies and chakra system).

Conscious Level: Magenta
Subconscious Level: Magenta
Shakes To: Magenta

Magenta represents: Divine Love; Love in the little things; Power; Compassion; Kindness; Cooperation; Universal Harmony; Emotional Balance; Intuition; Psychic Ability;

Uplifting. Cheerfulness; Contentment; Appreciation; Optimism; Spontaneity; Resourceful; Internal and External Organization

Main Theme: Spirituality in Action

Love in the little things. Where we recognize God is in the little things.

Dominant Characteristics:

This bottle supports the very creative person who serves others.

Helpful for those who act for the cause, not for acceptance by others.

Supports recognizing how important and valuable the small things in life are. Lives spirituality in everyday life.

Leads to deeper understanding and affinity with the earth.

Supports learning that love is great and expands beyond the personal.

Supports the recognition of the immortality of the soul and that the only guarantee in life is change.

Potential Challenge Aspects:

Helpful when:

There is a tendency toward overexertion and overwork.

Someone is easily disappointed or perceives life as very difficult.

When one is searching desperately for Divine love, because the love he/she receives from other people "is not enough".

Someone who wishes life would present all answers.

Spiritual Level:

Helps to bring love into the little everyday things.

Connects with the inner teacher.

Stimulates awareness.

Brings practical connections into spirituality.

Dissolves spiritual disillusionment.

Mental Level:

Increases concentration, as well as the ability to be silent and patient. Helpful with depression, especially when related to a lack of love.

Emotional Level:

Frees from the exaggerated need to compare oneself with others.

Allows the user see him/herself as he/she really is.

Brings tenderness into passionate emotions.

Where to Apply the Substance: Everywhere on the body (also excellent for use as a bath or body oil).

Affirmation:

"I wait in gratitude knowing that the Divine is revealing itself to me in my life."

Tree of Life (Universal Law- Law of Compensation)

The Sphere of Wisdom

"Earth Signs" reveal an attunement with the world of physical forms and a practical ability to utilize and improve the material world.

Guidance of the Sphere

Apply action that is aligned with your goals. Activity of any kind - physical, emotional or mental - is creative. It stimulates growth and change and gets things moving in the direction of the intent that is behind it. Every action attracts consequences. These consequences are instructive if one is "wise" enough to relate with them that way. Remain aware of what is happening in the present and observe the consequences of your actions every step of the way. This will enable you to adjust, and to avoid drifting off-course.

Pay attention to what reveals more direct and efficient ways to proceed. Keep your goal in mind to help you to act and react in line with it and to keep things moving in its direction. When you are in doubt as to what to do, remember your purpose or objective and hold it in mind. Your focus will soon stimulate ideas of what you can do.

Monitor the effect of the force you are using so that you can keep it under your conscious and intelligent control. It is generally wise to avoid extremes of any kind. Caution and moderation are the gateways to wisdom and sound judgement. Wisdom is available to those willing to receive it. Whatever your problem or challenge, keep your mind open to receiving the inner guidance you need. If you fill your head with the sorry belief that you do not or cannot know what to do, you block the guiding light you seek.

Experience Represented by the Sphere

This Sphere represents the pure, masculine energy of the universe, your desire to change and grow. Its name suggests the use of wise judgement, and its place is atop the Male Pillar of the Tree of Life indicates the respect for authoritative nature of Wisdom. Wisdom is the intelligent application of power. The color associated with this Sphere is gray, (sliver) suggesting gray hair, which symbolizes wisdom gained through experience over time. The conditions and individuals represented by this Sphere are characterized by knowledge, prudence, energy, activity, growth, and change. Experiences represented by this Sphere are teaching you the laws of life, higher purposes and goals, and intelligent way of applying force.

Pomander: Gold

Wisdom and Joy

(Pomanders work within the electro-magnetic field surrounding the physical body to essentially help protect, cleanse, refresh and strengthening the energetic field around you.)

Color: Gold

Fragrance: Flowery, fruity, like the forest

Crystal Energies: Amber: Gold: Zincite: Citrine

Usage: Tapping into the "Gold Mine" of Wisdom Within

The vapor essence of the Gold Pomander allows your inherent wisdom to surface as it inspires a deeper connection with your instincts and helps you contact the "inner teacher".

The Gold Pomander is the most powerful ally for contacting and bringing in inherent or ancient wisdom of the past for use in the consciousness expression of everyday living. For the understanding of age-old lessons, the Gold Essence is a more powerful source of wisdom and knowledge than the Yellow Pomander; thus, expediting one's journey on the path to their own Inner Truth.

These "transcendental" vapors move one beyond the intellect and its judgments (Yellow issues) and focus instead on wisdom and insight. This inspiration brings about spiritual humility connecting us to our Vital Force in our True Aura, just above the navel.

Hilarion

The Deepest Truth

Basic Theme: "To pursue the Way, the Truth, and the Life"

Color: Pale Green

Fragrance: Fresh, like the forest

The Way: As we come to know ourselves better, our direction becomes clearer.

The Truth: A full and fuller expression of ourselves.

The Light: As our consciousness raises, we become light filled.

The Quintessence helps to create space within the sense of self, to get to know oneself better. Allows the user to find the peace and space for decisions. A new direction. A new space. Hilarion is the key to unlock the door.

Brings access to one's own wisdom and truth while it gives an understanding of things on an emotional level once they have been assimilated on the mental level. By shedding light on the truth, we find rest and peace during stress, thus a true integration is possible. Once this integration happens, we "see the light" or "hilarity" of a situation.

Those working with others and using this vapor may be "reminded" to take the time they need for themselves. Further, meditation with this Quintessence may focus one on finding one's own way and acting on one's own truth. In any environment where there is a high level of stress in one's personal or professional life, Hilarion may provide support in making wise decisions.

Clear environmental pollutants. Refreshes parts that other Quints do not reach. This Quintessence helps to protect against earthly pollution and clears one of inner and outer deception, thereby refreshing the soul with truth.